TENA Solutions: A case study Care Home, Ontario, Canada

“One resident commented to staff that she liked the new TENA product because it allowed her the freedom to go to church”

– Care staff

Facility was interested in seeing if there could be improvements to cost and care through the introduction of new practices and products.

Background

This complex continuing care facility wanted to try TENA Solutions to see if they could save costs by introducing new practices and products. There were also concerns about recurring resident skin conditions. The facility was using non-TENA products.

Recommended changes

- Introduction of TENA Ultra and TENA Stretch products
- Individual continence care plans and individually selected products
